

$\left(\frac{\partial h}{\partial s}\right)_P$ describes the slope of an isobar in a Mollier diagram.

The slope of a line in a hs-diagram is given by $\frac{\partial h}{\partial s}$. For an isobar P is constant therefore P should be added at the lower right of the brackets.